

Both were economic ventures
Roanoke Island failed

Jamestown
by the Virginia Company 1607
first permanent English settlement in North America

Plymouth
settled by separatists from the Church of England

Massachusetts Bay Colony settled by the Puritans

Both wanted to avoid religious persecution.

settled by the Quakers

wanted freedom to practice their faith without interference

settled by debtors from prisons in England

wished for a new life and economic freedom